

TFA Amendment – Congress Prelims Preset at Invitationals

Brian Alford

A&M Consolidated High School

Region 4

balford@csisd.org

Rationale for Amendment: Many schools, especially smaller schools, are often left out of the un-official pre-tournament planning. Students communicate prior to tournaments in unofficial ways to plan the docket before the tournament begins. When this happens, students who are not in on the group chats will be at a disadvantage if they are not involved in the caucus/agenda planning.

Section where change occurs: Standing Rules – IQT Operations Manual

Page Number of Change – 98

Time Frame – Immediate

ADD FOLLOWING LANGUAGE after all Congress Info on page 98

IQT hosts will be responsible for setting the agenda for congressional debate. The tournament invitation will specify the order in which items will be debated.